

THE WILDERNESS CENTER

Costa Rica Ecotour

January 28 to February 7, 2012

Join Gordon Maupin, Executive Director of The Wilderness Center on a winter escape to the tropics of Costa Rica for an ecotour to the highlights of this wonderful, tropical country.

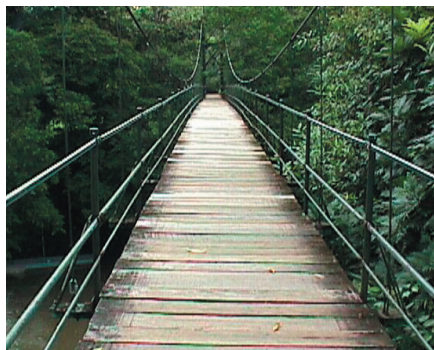

The details for the trip in enclosed.

Costa Rica has based a big part of its economy on ecotourism and as a result has top-notch facilities, first class naturalists and uses its wondrous national parks to support the nation while protecting an incredible natural heritage.

Activities:

- . Tour to Poas Volcano National Park and Waterfall Gardens.
- . Guided walk to Braulio Carrillo National Park.
- . Half Day guided walk to La Selva Biological Station.
- . Sarapiquí River white water rafting tour.
- . Visit to Monteverde Orchids Garden.
- . Half day guided walk at Monteverde Biological Reserve.
- . Monteverde Sky Tram & Trek (Canopy) tour.
- . Guided walk at Carara National Park.
- . Guided walk at Manuel Antonio National Park.

Information meeting with Q & A:
Saturday, August 6 at 11 a.m. followed by an optional lunch.

If you have questions about this trip, call Gordon at The Wilderness Center, toll free 877-359-5235.